this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The old J. M. and I. round-house has been torn away.Dr. Phinney was fined yesterday for failing to register as a physician.The County Board adjourned yesterday, after a session of seventeen days.A small blaze in a dwelling house on South West street called the Department out about 7 o'clock last evening. Loss inconsiderable.The Adams Packing Company of this city has filed a certificate and articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. Capital stock, $70,000.Marshall C. Woods denounces as a campaign lie the report that he has been tendered a position on the Metropolitan Police force in Washington.A. B. Harriett, a traveling salesman, residing at 68 1/2 Massachusetts avenue, died suddenly at Van Wert, O., on Monday, having been stricken with apoplexy.According to the latest report of the State Board of Health of the total deaths from zymotic diseases last year (3,950) 1,805 were American males, 1,363 American females, and 2,967 were single persons.The Superintendent of Police has received a letter from G. L. Haugh, Superintendent of the Central Union Telephone Company, asking him to enforce the ordinance making it unlawful for any person to post bills on telephone poles.The Attorney General has presented a couple of claims amounting to about $7,000 to the County Board for payment, which he claims were illegally charged to the State in former settlements. The county recently compromised similar claims amounting to$3,500 for $1,500. The County Board rejected the claims.The Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture reports that the present cold wave has done considerable harm to wheat. It is estimated that Indiana's wheat crop for 1885 will fall short of 1884's at least 5,000,000 bushels.Fred Nicholson was arrested last night for obtaining goods under false pretenses. Mr.
Brannan, the complainant, charges that Nicholson obtained several loads of coal from him upon the representation that he was an engineer.Mrs. Harry Blackman and Miss Maize Wilkins were driving along North Illinois street yesterday morning behind a very wild horse, which took fright and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing them out.
Both ladies were seriously injured.

AMUSEMENTS.

THOMAS NANT AT ENGLISH'S.

To-night, for the first and only time in our city, may be seen an artist at his work, who has become world-famous. Each stroke of pencil or brush conveys volumes of wit, humor and keen sarcasm. He is as quick as lightning in depicting his ideas, and all in plain view of the audience. He is ably assisted by an Englishman, Mr. Walter Pelham, whose talk on art and other interesting subjects helps to make the entertainment one that is a pleasure to sit through. Our citizens should honor them with a packed house.

ROBSON & CRANE AT THE GRAND TO-NIGHT.

To-night, at the Grand Opera House, the popular comedians, Robson & Crane, open a limited return engagement to fill out the week. They will come forward in that funniest of all funny comedies, "Sharpe and Flats." Mr. Robson assuming the role of "Cutter Sharp," the man of nerve, and Mr.
Crane that of "Dollstone Flat," the bull, bear and blood. They are especially fitted by nature for these parts, and the inevitable humor and drollery with which every word and action abounds results in keeping an audience in a constant roar of laughter.
To-morrow night they will be seen as the "Twin Brothers," in their latest comedy success, "The Cherubs," and Saturday night in their improved "Robson & Crane Boarding House." Saturday matinee "Our Bachelors" will be given. The entire series of performances will be given under the auspices and for the benefit of that popular local military order, the Light Infantry, and the boys are working hard to make it a grand success. A large number of tickets have already been sold. Messrs. Robson & Crane's supporting company has been greatly strengthened since their last appearance here, and now numbers, among others, Mr. Charles S. Dickson, Mr. William G.
Beach, Mr. W. B. O'Brien, Mr. J. K. Morner, Mr. Edward M. Marden, Miss Sadie Bigelow, Miss Flora May Henry, (formerly of this city), Miss Margaret Pierce and Mrs. Georgia Dickson.
There are few performers now before the American public who have a higher professional standing, a wider popularity or the record of a more successful career, financially and artistically, than Stuart Robson and William H. Crane. The pre-eminence is due to a thoroughness of artistic methods and a conscientious treatment of their roles that have been universally recognized and that have stamped the creations of Robson and Crane with the unmistakable imprints of originality and power.

NOTES.

The Zoo is doing well this week with the Leonzo Brothers and their acting dogs.The attractions at the Dime Museum next week will be the strongest of the season.Barlow and Wilson's mammoth minstrels will give a single performance at the Grand Opera House one week from to-night.The Dime Museum was packed again last night. The attractions this week are among the best Manager Sackett has ever given us.It may interest the many friends of Miss May Henry in this city to know that she plays the leading part in "Sharpe and Flats" to-night, and also in "The Cherubs" to-morrow night.The last two nights of next week the distinguished actress and society star, M'lie Rhes, will appear at the Grand Opera House, presenting her new play, "An American Countess."The sale of seats for the Abbott Opera Company engagement opened yesterday morning at the Grand Opera House box office, and reached almost $300 before closing time. This is the largest advance sale in one day the company has ever had here, and means largely increased business. The company is unusually strong this season.The Hollywood Juvenile Barreque Opera Company will hold the boards all of next week at English's. Matinees daily. The low prices of admission—ten, twenty and thirty cents—will place this spectacular, musical treat within the reach of all, little and large, ladies and gentlemen. "Ginderella" and the "Prince Charming" will be the attractive magnets that will draw.

Death of Frank Root.

Frank Root, one of the Sentinel compositors, dropped dead at his residence, No. 227 North New Jersey street, about 5:30 last evening. Dr. Todd attributes the death to the bursting of an abscess which had formed on his lungs. Mr. Root has been in the employ of the Sentinel Company for several years, and has been ailing since last September. He quit work a short time ago, intending to take a trip to Florida for the benefit of his health, and was to have left for that State on Monday next in company with his wife. Mr. Root was well liked by his fellow-workmen and the craft generally, he having been an active member of the Typographical Union, which organization will attend his funeral in a body. It is understood that Mr. Root was a member of the Masonic fraternity, belonging to Lafayette Commandery Knights Templar, he having formerly resided in that city. The deceased will be interred to-morrow.

Too Much Lock.

For some weeks past the County Treasurer's safe has been out of order, the lock on one of the inside doors becoming rusty and refusing to work. Two days ago, by a little carelessness, the combination was thrown and the door was fastened. There being no method by which the door could be unlocked, word was sent to Hall's Safe Lock Company at Cincinnati for assistance, and an expert came on yesterday. He spent the entire morning trying to throw the bolts back, but gave it up at noon, and in the afternoon began to cut away the door, which consists of over half a dozen heavy plates of chilled steel. This was a difficult matter, and two men, with wedges, chisels and sledge hammers, worked all afternoon, but only succeeded in partially removing the first plate. After supper the work was recommenced, and the Cincinnati man announced he would work on it all night, and hoped to complete the job to-day. The funof the business is that there are $2,000 in the vault. The noise of the hammering is such that the clerks can hardly hear themselves yell. A new door will have to be forwarded from Cincinnati to replace the present one.

A Very Careless Dog.

The dog employed by the lunch providers of the Sentinel's night force to carry their account book, played a sorry trick upon his master last night. He came down the stairs as usual, after lunch, with the account book in his mouth, just as proud as ever of his work, but when he reached the street he was introduced to a visiting dog from Evanville or some other port, and in the ensuing proceedings he forgot the book. He "showed up" at the restaurant all right, but minus the book. The boys were hunting over the street for it at a late hour, but up to last accounts they had not recovered it.

IT IS A SPLENDID THING

To Have a Reputation for Square Dealing.

Our frequent advertisements of actual bargains in Shoes never fail to draw an immense patronage in the succeeding days, the demand for the advertised article only abating when replaced by a similar inducement in a different department. Our method is to have a standing attraction so arranged, that in turn each department is represented. We place on sale TO-DAY a line of Ladies' Kid Boots and a lot of Ladies' Fine Kid Sandal Slippers, made expressly for our retail trade. Both lots are guaranteed good quality, and the reader is assured they are fully one-third less than usual city prices.
